“Text Messages”

September 12, 2005

On May 08, 2005, I believe the Lord gave me this dream. (If you have any comments feel free to email me).

At 6:30 a.m. I awoke from a dream the Lord had given me. I knew I had to get up and write it down. The urgency and the contents were too important to rely on my memory. I knew I could not risk losing any of the details. So here it is:

I was attending a huge conference and there were thousands of people in the congregation. I did not want to come to this meeting, but the Lord told me to go. Some of us had our cell phones on vibrate and we were sporadically positioned in the crowd. All of a sudden our phones began to vibrate and it was a “Text Message” from the Lord. The men on the platform did not receive this text message. There was one man who discerned the Lord was wanting to speak to us. He stopped the men on the platform, and made an appeal to those who had received the text message to come forward, but only those who had at some point in their lives had a visitation from Jesus-- those who had seen Jesus face to face could come.

Myself and one other person stood up. It wasn't that the ones who received the text message didn't hear from God; it was that the visitation of the Lord qualified us to speak this serious message to the people. It was like having an authorization from the Lord because He had appeared to us.

As I approached the platform, I would not go up the steps. The discerning man had to come down three steps and hand me the microphone. The other men on the platform didn't want me to speak, for fear I would pray in tongues. The discerning man gave them a look of back-off, this is serious, let her speak. As I began to decree and declare the Word of the Lord, I would pace back and forth before the people. I began saying, “This is a red level alert. Sound the alarm.” The people were stunned to silence. The fear of the Lord was on their faces, not one of hysterics, but one of total shock. At first, only the prophets understood how critical the alarm was, but slowly the people began to understand.

While I paced, the Lord showed me a map of the United States in the spirit. I could see red light alarms going off all over the country, in every state and in many, many cities. I could see angels stationed at our borders.

Then I heard the Lord say, “Tell them I a sending more “Text Messages””. He said tell them, “I will do nothing without first telling the prophets.” He then instructed me to read Amos 3.

The dream ended.
